

Tanta University

Faculty of Medicine

Dermatology & Venereology Department

20/4/2019

Diploma exam; Derma 1

(All questions must be answered)

Time allowed: 2 hours

1. Give an account on:
 - a) Epidermolytic hyperkeratosis. (9 marks)
 - b) Type IV hypersensitivity reaction. (9 marks)
2. Discuss:
 - a) Subacute lupus erythematosus. (9 marks)
 - b) Types of acne scars and their treatment. (9 marks)
3. Give an account on:
 - a) Treatment of unstable psoriasis. (9 marks)
 - b) Management of chronic idiopathic urticaria. (9 marks)
4. Describe:
 - a) Dermatitis herpetiformis. (9 marks)
 - b) Kawasaki disease. (9 marks)
5. Discuss:
 - a) Differential diagnosis of facial hyperpigmentation. (9 marks)
 - b) Abnormalities of hair shaft. (9 marks)

Good luck

Tanta University

Faculty of Medicine

Dermatology & Venereology Department

24/4/2019

Diploma exam; Derma II

(All questions must be answered)

Time allowed: 2 hours

1- Give an account on:

- a) Perforating dermatosis. (9 marks)
- b) Fractional photothermolysis in dermatology. (9 marks)

2- Discuss:

- a) Causes of pruritic dermatosis of pregnancy. (9 marks)
- b) Kaposi varicelliform eruption. (9 marks)

a) Give an account on:

- a) Netherton syndrome. (9 marks)
- b) Urticarial vasculitis. (9 marks)

b) Discuss:

- a) Juvenile xanthogranuloma. (9 marks)
- b) Painful skin tumours. (9 marks)

c) Describe:

- a) Pseudolymphoma. (9 marks)
- b) Palisading granuloma. (9 marks)

Good luck

Tanta University

Faculty of Medicine

Dermatology & Venereology Department

diploma exam; Adrology

Time allowed: 2 hours

Date: 27/4/2019

Total marks: 90

All questions must be answered:

- 1- Describe nerve supply of the penis (18 marks)
- 2- Illustrate the adolescent phase of adulthood psychsexual masturbation (18 marks)
- 3- Identify types and indications of penile prosthesis (18 marks)
- 4- Give an account of definition, pathology and management of testicular torsion (18 marks)
- 5- Explain pathogenesis of diabetic erectile dysfunction (18 marks)

Good luck